1:30-3 pm

Tuition: $90 Member,
$100 General (tuition includes $15 materials fee)
Instructor: Carolina Silva

Explore the tactile medium of clay using nature and storybooks. Students will craft their own clay places, characters, and stories inspired by Children of the Forest and other books by beloved Swedish children's author and illustrator Elsa Beskow.

CREATIVE CLAY LAB

Grades: 2-5
Tuesdays, Feb 26-March 19
4-5:30 pm

Tuition: $95 Member,
$105 General (tuition includes
$20 materials fee)
Instructor: Carolina Silva

Join us for an exploration of the endless possibilities of clay. Learn about hand building, slab, coil, glazing and other techniques, and explore how clay has been used by different cultures from antiquity to contemporary art. Work on individual projects that explore mythological figures, function, imaginative play, and representation.

SEW INKIN FUN!

Grades: 4-7
Thursday & Friday,
March 21 & 22 | 9 am-3:30 pm
Tuition: $170 Member,
$185 General (tuition includes
$20 materials fee)

Instructors: Meredith Neal
Pickerel, Alisara Martin

Wondering what to do when there's no school due to teacher conferences? Join us for fun with fabric and ink! Create your own custom printed tote bags and accessories. Learn to cut fabric and sew your designs with a sewing machine, then decorate with relief prints.

LATE START ARTS

WINTER/SPRING 2019

Eight Thursdays: Jan 10, Feb 7 & 28, Mar 14, Apr 18,
May 9 & 23, June 6

Tuition: $325 Member | $350 General
(tuition includes $65 materials/snack fee)

Late Start Arts provides enriching creative activities on Chautauqua Professional Development Days (PDD). Students arrive at VCA between 8:30-9:00 am and the Chautauqua bus will transport kids to school at 11:30 am. Open to homeschoolers as well.

JOURNEY AROUND THE WORLD

Grades: K-2
Instructors: Sue Wiley, Gerie Wilson

Late Start world travel adventures continue with journeys to England, Tahiti, Ireland and more! Using lessons focused on geography, literature, drama and art, the program helps kids grow their sense of empathy, self-confidence and fun. Each session begins with a story where characters come to life. A related art project helps students deepen their understanding of other cultures and traditions. Sue Wiley has produced plays for kids for over 20 years. Gerie Wilson is an award-winning teacher.

FABULOUS FIBER ARTS

Grades: 2-5
Instructors: Alisara Martin, Meredith Neal

Begin your Late Start mornings with fun fiber projects. Make portable fabric board games and game pieces; create fuzzy animals, emojis, and monsters; concoct felt ice creams, cakes, and fruit to use as toys and ornaments.

Weaving. Yarn bombing! What will you create with your colorful imagination? Meredith Neal Pickerel fostered her love of teaching art and science working at Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, and Alisara Martin is the art teacher at the Harbor School.

Students will learn about theater and its production while being engaged by this stage adaptation full of great warmth and more than a touch of hilarity. Speaking/singing roles for over 20 students.

I SOLISTI DI VASHON

Ages: 13-18
Mondays, Feb 4-June 10 5:15-6:30 pm
Tuition: $180 Member $200 General

Instructor: Gaye Detzer
I Solisti di Vashon is an advanced string ensemble for high school students (8th graders by special permission).

The repertoire is chosen from the great classical composers and from contemporary popular music.

SUZUKI VIOLIN LESSONS

Ages: 4-18
Winter/Spring: Feb 4-June 14
Instructor: Gaye Detzer (Suzuki teacher for 40+ years)
Location: Vashon United Methodist Church

The Suzuki approach is based on the philosophy that young children learn music just as they learn to speak their native language—through regular listening. Lessons include developmentally-appropriate instruction and frequent opportunities to play alone and with others. Students can register for 15, 30 or 45 minute lessons. Contact Gaye with questions and to schedule lesson time after registration, GayeD@vashoncenterforthearts.org.
